

New or Noteworthy Plants which have flowered in the Royal Botanic Garden, Edinburgh, during 1937

Bulbinella Rossii Benth. et Hook. f. Gen. Plant. iii (1880), 784. (Liliaceae.) A native of New Zealand. Flowers yellow. May 1937. Rock Garden.

Brassia Gireoudiana Reichb. f. et Warsc. in Otto und Dietr. Allg. Gartenz. xxii (1854), 273. (Orchidaceae.) Native of Central America. Flowers—sepals and petals yellow, green tinted. April 1937. Orchid House.

Chlorocodon Whitei Hook. f. in Bot. Mag. t. 5898 (1871). (Asclepiadaceae.) "Mundi-root," a native of South Africa. Flowers purplish or greenish in axillary panicles. June 1937. Glass Houses.

Delphinium tsarongense Hand.-Mazz. in Anz. Akad. Wiss. Wien, Math.-Nat. lix (1922), 245. (Ranunculaceae.) Native of Tibet. Flowers powder blue. September 1937. Nursery.

Eria ferruginea Teijsm. et Binn. in Tijdschr. Nederl. Ind. xxiv (1862), 312 (Rusty Eria). Bot. Reg. xxv, t. 35 (1839). (Orchidaceae.) A native of India. Flowers with delicate pink petals and a singularly crested lip; and with coarse green shaggy sepals. May 1937. Orchid House.

Gentiana grandis H. Smith in Anz. Akad. Wiss. Wien, Math.-Nat. lxiii (1926), 100. (Gentianaceae.) A native of China. Flowers blue. August 1937. Rock Garden.

Gentiana Szechenyii Kanitz, Pl. exped. Szechenyi in As. centr. coll. (1891), 40. (Gentianaceae.) A native of China. Flowers lilac fading to white at the base of the corolla. September to October. Rock Garden.

Habenaria geniculata D. Don, Prod. Fl. Nep. 25; Ann. of Bot. Gdn. Calcutta, v, t. 98 (1895). (Orchidaceae.) A native of India. Flowers white, petals slightly brown. July 1937. Orchid House.

Haronga madagascariensis Choisy, Prod. Mon. Hyper. 34; Grandidier Hist. Madag. (Plantes) Atlas, t. 336a (1896). (Hypericaceae.) [Notes, R.B.G., Edin., No. XCV, July 1938.]

A native of Madagascar. Small white flowers in terminal corymbs. November 1937. Glass Houses.

Lourya campanulata Baill. in Bull. Linn. Soc. Paris (1888), t. 743 ; Bot. Mag. t. 7482 (1896). (Liliaceae.) A native of Cochin-China. Flowers creamy white with chocolate blotch at base. January 1937. Glass Houses.

Mayaca Sellowiana Kunth, Enum. Pl. iv, 32. (Mayacaceae.) A native of Brazil. Flowers white tinged with pink. September to October 1937. Glass Houses.

Meconopsis gracilipes G. Taylor, Account of the Genus Meconopsis (1934), 38. (Papaveraceae.) A native of Nepal. Flowers yellow. June 1937. Wild Garden.

Muraltia mixta DC. Prod. i, 336 ; Reichenbach, Mag. Aesth. Bot. (Ic. et Descr. Pl. Cult.), t. 87 (1822). (Polygalaceae.) A native of South Africa. Flowers pale pink. Throughout the year (1937). Glass Houses.

Narcissus Watieri Jahandiez et Maire in Bull. Soc. Hist. Nat. Afr. Nord, xii (1921), 186 ; Gard. Chron. cii (1937), 231. (Amaryllidaceae.) A native of Morocco. Flowers white. March 1937. Front of Houses and Rock Garden.

Oxypetalum coeruleum Decne. in DC. Prod. viii, 585 ; Baillon, Hist. Pl. x, 228 (1891). (Asclepiadaceae.) A native of the Argentine. Flowers pale blue. May to June 1937. Glass Houses.

Primula Boothii Craib in Notes Roy. Bot. Gard. Edin. vi (1917), 249. (Petiolares Section.) (Primulaceae.) A native of Bhutan, India. Flowers rose-lilac. September 1937. Rootery. (No doubt flowering out of season.)

Primula Clarkei Watt in Journ. Linn. Soc. xx (1882), 4. (Petiolares Section.) (Primulaceae.) A native of the Himalayas. Flowers deep pink. July 1937. Rootery.

Primula Whitei W. W. Smith in Rec. Bot. Surv. India, iv (1911), 268. (Petiolares Section.) (Primulaceae.) A native of the Himalayas (Bhutan). Flowers pale blue with yellow eye. October 1937. Rootery. (No doubt flowering out of season.)

Rhodohypoxis Bauri Nel in Bot. Jahrb. li (1914), 300. The Royal Botanic Garden, Edinburgh (1938), p. 56. (Amaryllidaceae.) A native of Natal. Flowers deep carmine. May 1937. Rock Garden.